

Instructor Biography

Scott Bautch, DC, DACBOH, CCST, CCSP

Dr. Scott Bautch is the former CEO of Allied Health Chiropractic Centers, the largest doctor-owned Chiropractic group in the country; he has also served on the Board of Directors since it was founded in 1994. Currently, Dr. Scott Bautch maintains an active practice in Wausau Wisconsin, and is married and has six children.

In 1983, he completed his Doctor of Chiropractic degree from Logan College of Chiropractic. He also completed a Diplomate in Occupational Health, and several certificates and programs related to occupational health and sports injuries.

Currently, he sits on the American Chiropractic Association Business Development and Revenue Committee. Past chairman positions he held was chairman of NCHPP Chiropractic Quality Assurance Committee, past chairman of Security Health Plan Chiropractic Quality Assurance Committee, and past chairman of the Wisconsin Chiropractic Association on Occupational Health Board. He also served as the Past president of the American Chiropractic Association Council on Occupational Health, the International Academy of Chiropractic Occupational Health Board, on the Board of Directors of the Wisconsin Chiropractic Association, on the American Chiropractic Workers Compensation Committee, and as an advisor on the 365 ANSI committee on Carpal Tunnel. Past memberships he participated in were the WPS Chiropractic Committee and WPS Medical Committee.

Along with serving for several different boards and committees, Scott also finds time to present and consult to several industries, which to-date includes over 2,000 industries touched by his knowledge and passion for Chiropractic. He also co-authored the manual Industrial Carpal Tunnel Manual for Physicians and the book Carpal Tunnel Syndrome: A Practical Guide for Those Who Work With Their Hands.