

Speaker Biography

Timothy S. Wakefield DC, DACBSP, CSCS, CCST

Dr. Timothy S. Wakefield, eChiroEHR Director of Development for Best Practices Academy, has been in full time clinical practice for 27+ years. He has assisted with clinical content development for EHR systems and has taught multiple programs and written books and manuals on chiropractic clinical procedures, clinical documentation, CPT coding, sports injuries, physical fitness and other health related topics. He enjoys researching and learning about the new demands of healthcare and then developing systems and procedures to increase efficiency and profitability for the entire chiropractic profession.

Dr. Wakefield graduated from Northwestern College of Chiropractic in 1989. He is a Diplomate in the American Chiropractic Board of Sports Physicians. He a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and is Certified in Chiropractic Spinal Trauma.

He is in full time practice with his wife (Lorelei N. Wakefield DC, CCST) in Park Falls, WI. They have 3 boys. He has been actively involved with athletes, on the field and in the office, for over 20 years at all levels of play.